Construction of Busan Filming Center Begins

To be Completed in

2023

Construction on the Busan Filming Center, which is to be located in the Gijang Ceramics Tourism Healing Village, will begin in the first half of this year and is scheduled to be completed in 2021. The filming center, which will have 66 billion won invested in it from the selling of the current Namyangju Filming Center, is the largest comprehensive filming facility in Korea with three film shooting studios, video support facilities, production support facilities, artwork facilities and outdoor shooting sites. In addition, with 3D shooting using virtual reality also being possible, it is expected there will be new advancements made in the Korean film industry.

Gijang-gun recently changed its agreement with the Korean Film Council and the Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism to offer full exemption of usage fees for the Busan Filming Center and in the case the Korean Film Council decides to buy land for its operations in Gijang, Gijang will adhere to this. Such outcomes are the result of Gijang's full acceptance of parts of the demands of the film industry in order ensure smooth construction of the filing center.

Take Note of Eco-friendly Smart Farming

The Gijang Agricultural Technology Center will provide training until January 17 to train farmers who will lead the future. The program will provide training on future food industry direction, high-quality rice production technology, understanding of smart agriculture, and the encounter between urban agriculture and humanities. The Gijang Agricultural Technology Center has selected a professional instructor who is experienced in the field and has prepared a program for farmers who run farms.

100 CCTVs to be Installed in Gijang

Gijang County, Busan Gijang Police Station, and Busan Metropolitan Corporation signed a joint cooperation agreement to bring the three organizations together for resident safety and crime prevention. The main contents of the agreement are to install 100 CCTVs for crime prevention to prevent various crimes and accidents occurring in Gijang County, which occupies the largest area in Busan.

It's Winter Vacation Time - Let's Have Fun Here!

Busan National Science Museum: Mysterious World of Science

The Busan National Science Museum is a popular exhibition for children as well as adults as more than 90% of the 200 exhibits are experiential. In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the moon landing, the museum is holding a special exhibition, 'The Challenge to Space,' where you can see the experience of weightlessness, growing crops in space, and energy production facilities. The special exhibition will be held until March 1, and the admission fee is 5,000 won for adults, 4,000 won for teenagers and 2,000 won for infants.

Jeonggwan Museum: Get to Know Us!

Until January 16, Jeonggwan Museum will run an educational program titled 'Our Family's Day Out at the Museum' for families with children. The program is divided into two parts, for children aged 6-7 years old and students in elementary school grades 1-3. For the program aimed at children who are 6-7 years old, visitors can experience the craft of making houses from the period of the Three States using various materials, and look at the house-shaped pottery and houses from the period of the Three States. The program aimed at elementary school students will learn about the mouse, which is the animal of this year's lunar zodiac. The children will be able to make a white mouse doll and decorate it with natural moss, soil and stones.
